

LARGE CROWDS GREET SWANSON

Russell Pours Out Its Welcome in Large Gathering.

HARD RIDE ACROSS COUNTRY

His Reception in the Ninth Passes His Expectation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEBANON, VA., October 25.—Candidate Claude A. Swanson addressed an audience variously estimated at from one thousand to fifteen hundred at Lebanon, the county seat of Russell county, this afternoon.
The speech was made on the lawn of the public school building, the crowd being composed of the best men and women of the county.

The speaker was introduced by Attorney H. T. Wilson. Mr. Swanson arrived in Lebanon about 11 o'clock from Gate City, a distance of about thirty miles, the trip being made by private conveyance.
He left Gate City this morning at 1 o'clock, and a very hard ride through the country.

Mr. Swanson's speech was received very enthusiastically, as was evidenced from the close attention given him. His speech made a profound impression upon his hearers.

A First Visit.

Mr. Swanson began his speech of an hour by saying that this visit to Russell was his first appearance in the county, and paid high tribute to the Russell Democracy. The speaker said that Russell county had given a helping hand in ridding the State of Mahoneism and Republican rule.
Mr. Swanson emphasized the importance of the election this fall by saying that a United States senator is to be elected to represent Virginia in the national Congress. The speaker denied the assertion that the Republican party to-day is a new party. The Republican party in Virginia to-day is striving for the same purpose to-day that it did forty years ago, said the speaker, for you can't put anyone in old bottles. Judge Wilson stood with the oppressors of Virginia when the State was in its darkest days.
He was instrumental in sending troops to Virginia to try to steal elections, as was done in other States.

The speaker showed where Virginia and other Southern States had prospered as soon as they rid themselves of Republican rule.

Every State under Republican control has been ruined morally, socially and many other ways. The four years of Republican rule in this State was full of poverty, rascality and retrogression.

Good Stealers.

The Republicans, while in power in Virginia for four years, stole more money in the bankrupt bank at Petersburg than had ever been stolen before. Out of a total of sixty-five millions collected in the public treasury of Virginia, I defy any man to show me where a cent has been misappropriated except the sheep-stead by forged checks. Democracy honesty is a test of its power.

Mr. Swanson touched on the public school question only to say that under Democratic rule twice as much money had been appropriated for schools as under Republican rule. It is said by the most conservative men that Russell county will go Democratic by a small majority.

Splendid Reception.

In conversation to-day, Mr. Swanson stated to me that the reception he has received in the Ninth District, where he has been for the past two weeks, had exceeded his expectations. He also stated that he was delighted to get back on the railroad once more, and that if he had to travel much more over the rough roads of the Southwest he would become fanatical on the good roads question.

CUTCHIN'S TROUBLES.

Cattle Stealing Added to the Charge of Forgery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 25.—J. C. Cutchin, who was arrested Monday in Franklin and carried to Norfolk to-day for forging the name of his uncle, J. C.
Cutchin, to a check for three hundred dollars, had a charge brought against him to-day for stealing cows. He has in the last four months stolen several cows from farmers of Southampton county and brought them to Suffolk for sale. This was traced to him yesterday by Chief of Police Brinkley of Suffolk, and Chief of Police Bell of Franklin.

Officers in Senior Class.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE, Oct. 25.— The senior class of William and Mary College met last night and elected the following officers: President, William R. Wigglesworth; Vice-President, Robert H. Honley; Secretary, and Treasurer, Benj. A. Warriner; Historian, William H. Newcomb; Prophet, James H. Garrett; Poet, Ivan S. Foster; Valetudinarian, F. M. Johnson. The class has thirteen members, being about the same number as the senior class of last year.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the easiest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purposes.
Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities that are present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.
Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion. It whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels, and disfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

Charcoal charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the composition of the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form rather than in form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon be in much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, advised a lady suffering from gas in stomach and bowels to take Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to purify the breath, mouth and throat, and believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and distinctly in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better results in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets.

Be Cheerful

Life is too short to worry over mere trifles. It may be hard to be merry with a headache.

SYNOD BEGINS HERE TO-NIGHT

halls of the Seminary on Monday, October 30th, from 4 to 6 P. M., when faculty and students will have the opportunity to meet many friends and to make acquaintances.

The list of names published in one of the afternoon papers yesterday as of those being already in the city is inaccurate. The names were only of the members of the synod who had signified their intention of being in attendance. Of these it is impossible to forecast who will actually be present, as many will be prevented from one reason or another; and there is little likelihood of the whole synod attending the session. But there will be many here, and this convention promises to be one of the largest in the history of the Synod of Virginia.

An Ancient Body.

Ninety-one years ago, in 1814, beyond the memory of any living member of the church to-day, the Synod of Virginia met for the first time in the capital of Virginia. The meeting must have been in the old church down in the valley; but time has left no proof to demonstrate the accuracy of this. There were four presbyteries then—Hanover, Lexington, Arlington and Winchester—and eighteen members made the synod. Dr. Speeche preached the opening sermon, and Rev.
John D. Blair, pastor of Hanover and Richmond, was the moderator. Three years after, in 1817, the synod met in Richmond. It is supposed in the old church on lower Franklin Street. Dr.
Rice preached the sermon, and Dr.
Speeche was the moderator.

The synod did not meet again in Richmond until 1823, when Dr. Matthews, of Shepherdstown, preached the sermon and Dr. William Hill, of Winchester, was the moderator. In 1841 the presbyters came again, with Dr. W. S. White to preside over it. The fifth meeting in Richmond was in 1856, and was held in the First Church, where the City Hall now stands. The sermon was preached by Dr. Samuel R.
Houston, and Dr. George Armstrong was moderator. The roll numbered about one hundred members, of whom only four are living to-day—Rev. M. H. Bittiger, Dr.
W. H. Ruffner, Dr. C. R. Vaughan and Dr. E. P. Terhune. Dr. Terhune may be present at this meeting, though it has been forty-nine years since he sat in a meeting of the synod in Richmond.

Just After the War.

Again, in 1863, when the clouds of the war had dispersed, the synod came to the Second Church in Richmond. Dr. John H.
Bocock preached the opening sermon, and Dr. Richard Melville sat in the moderator's chair. There were 169 members enrolled, and a number of these will be present at this meeting, though the greater host have gone to the meeting with their God.
Again, in 1865, the synod came to Richmond, meeting in the First Church, with the pastor, Dr. Thomas L. Preston, as moderator. It was a memorable meeting, with 206 members on the roll. Arrangements were here made for the celebration of the synod's centennial, two years later, at New Providence.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Meeting of the Virginia Branch in Session at Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Oct. 25.—The annual meeting of the Virginia branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church opened in St. George's Church here in regular session at 9 o'clock this morning, with prayer by Bishop R.
Gibson.

An address of welcome in behalf of the parish was made by Rev. H. H. Barber, of Trinity Church, this city, followed by an address by Miss Sallie Stuart, of Alexandria, president of the auxiliary. An address was delivered by Mrs. E. J. Smith, president of the local auxiliary, in behalf of the Fredericksburg churches.

Miss Barber, of the diocese of Bangor, was the guest of honor, and made a brief address. Bishop Gibson made an address on the subject of enlarging the work of missions; and Rev. John O. Meenen, of the work in Brazil, and Rev. Bennett Smith on general mission work.

The session closed with devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. J. Potts Tyler, archdeacon of the diocese.

MEET AT ELKS' HOME.

Annual Convention of Daughters of the Revolution.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., October 25.—The ninth annual convention of the Daughters of the Revolution of the State opened at the Elks Home this morning. After prayer by Rev. W. H. Milton, the addresses of welcome were delivered by Mrs.
Samuel W. Jamison, of this city. Mrs.
Robinson, of Alexandria, responded. The largest of the State Branches, the Howard, showed a gain of three chapters and ninety-seven members.

A telegram was received from Mrs.
Donald McLean, of New York, president-general. A luncheon was given by the Elks, and a reception at Hotel at Hotel Roanoke to-night.

BIG VERDICT FOR TEN-YEAR BOY

Awarded Ten Thousand Against Norfolk and Atlantic Terminal.

UNKNOWN MAN DIES IN JAIL

Chinaman Farmer, of Princess Anne, Victim of Exclusion Act.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 25.—James McCormick, a ten-year-old boy, obtained a verdict in the Court of Law and Chancery to-day against the Norfolk and Atlantic Terminal Company Railway for $10,000. He was thrown or fell from the car on July 4th, coming from Pine Beach.
His right leg and two fingers of his right hand were cut off by the wheels of the car. He was picked up lifeless and supposed to be dead, but recovered at the hospital. He uses two crutches now. The railway moved for a new trial.

The three-masted schooner Edith Allen, Captain Lablane, of Philadelphia, bound from Bridgeport, Conn., for Santiago, Cuba, with a cargo of ore, is in Hampton Roads, looking, and awaiting orders.

Louis Fairfield, an unknown man, died in the jail hospital this morning from chronic malaria. He was a patient at the St. Vincent Hospital recently, but cured out everybody there and left. He was picked up on the street, sick, and taken to the jail hospital, where he died. He was not able to give an account of himself. He will be buried by the city.

CHINAMAN FARMER EXCLUDED.

Quong Sing, a prosperous farmer, has been refused admittance and residence here by the United States Immigration authorities. He is a Chinaman, who had a farm in Princess Anne county, which was profitable. Four years ago he secured permission to return to China, with the understanding that he must return in one-year limit, under the Gary exclusion act. Sing says he did return in one year, but was barred from entering because he was suffering from a contagious disease of the eyes. He returned to the China, and when cured sought to come back to America and resume his agricultural pursuits in Princess Anne county.
The government rules that the one-year limit having passed, Sing cannot return to America as a laborer.

MAYNARD RETURNS.

Congressman Harry L. Maynard returned home this morning from a three weeks trip to Arizona, where he went with a party of congressmen to look into investments in mining property. Mr. Maynard was pleased with the country, but declined to talk about the investments made by his party.

DAMAGE SUIT COMPROMISED.

The $10,000 damage suit of Henry James Powell, of Nansemond county, administrator of the estate of his deceased wife, Mrs. Sarah M. Powell, against the Old Dominion Street Railway, of Portsmouth, has been compromised for $2,500. Mrs.
Powell was injured in a fall on an Embankment on February 20, 1904, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Edward Johnson, the following April.
She was visiting in Portsmouth at the time she was injured.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

William J. Mays, aged sixty-two years, of Pinner's Point, was adjudged insane by a commission of lunacy and sent to the Eastern State Hospital, at Williamsburg.

BATTLE MONUMENT.

Unveiling Ceremonies By Pennsylvania Veterans.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW MARKET, VA., Oct. 25.—Notwithstanding the steady downpour of rain all day, the handsome statue erected in honor of the dead of the Fifty-fourth Pennsylvania Infantry, at Edgemoor, Virginia, was unveiled by Miss Masteller on the Newmarket battlefield this afternoon in the presence of several hundred people.

Further exercises were concluded here in the Open House, which was crowded.
They consisted of singing "America" by a local choir, prayer by Rev. E. L. Wes-singer, address of welcome by C. W.
Bennick and addresses by Adjutant W.
Horace Rose and C. G. Campbell, commander of the regiment in this battle.
Music was also furnished by the Newmarket Brass Band.

EDUCATORS MEET.

Large Gathering of Teachers at Fairfax Courthouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FAIRFAX C. H., VA., October 25.—An educational meeting was held here today in Willard's Hall, seventy-five teachers were present and many visitors.
Professor M. D. Hall, superintendent of schools, made the opening address. The remainder of the part of the teachers were presented by Franklin Williams, Jr., of Falls Church, Va. Charles G. Naphis spoke at length on the needs of the forms in educational work, and was followed by Dr. Robert Frazier. Mrs. John D.
Hyde made the closing address for the day. The meeting will be in session to-morrow and next day.

will address the voters of Fredericksburg in the courthouse here on Thursday night. This will be Mr. Brax-ton's first speech here, and there is a general desire to hear him. The Democrats will give him a royal welcome.

Mr. R. Larkin Jefferson, who has been working on the railroads here, fell from a skyscraper on the third story to the second story, and was badly hurt, though no bones were broken.

Nearly a Triple Tragedy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., October 25.—A triple tragedy was narrowly averted in this city yesterday, when two sisters, Misses Annie and Mattie McCord, and their nephew, William A. Sloat, being overcome and rendered unconscious by the escape of a stove in which was an anthracite coal fire.

They were awakened about a o'clock in the morning in a dazed condition, and felt as if needles were piercing their bones. Misses McCord and Mr. Sloat were saved by heroic efforts.

POLITICAL SHOALS FOR GOSPEL LAUNCH

Republican Spellbinders Meet Foreman Worthy of Their Steel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

IRVINGTON, VA., Oct. 25.—The Republican gospel raft ran against political shoals in Lancaster last week and has dismasted the campaigners. Phillips and Ball, did little but abuse Congressman Jones and the editor of the Virginia Citizen, W. McDonald Lee. J.
Black Stovall, of Danville, Congressman Swanson's last opponent, arrived Monday to finish out the broken literary in the Northern Neck that night.
Here he and Republican Chairman Gresham jointly debated with Commonwealth's Attorney Newbill and Editor Lee before a good audience.

The following night Mr. Stovall was met by T. J. Downing at Weems and badly worsted. It is thought he, too, will abandon the literary here, as the local leaders are running him hard.

COTTON MEN SAY REPORT WAS HELD

Two Hours' Delay in Issuing Ginners' Bulletin Brings Forth Protest.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE

Brokers Claim Tardiness Provided to Allow Certain Parties More Time to Sell.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—The Census Bureau issued a bulletin to-day placing the cotton ginned in the United States up to October 18th at 4,940,728 bales, round bales being counted as half-bales. The statement is based on reports made by the bureau's special agents in the field.

No estimate is made of the total crop for the year, but figures are given out concerning crops of former years. These figures show that up to this date in 1904 the product of the gins had reached a total of 6,417,891 bales out of a total of 12,033,273 bales for the year. In 1903 the total production was 10,045,515 bales and the ginning output up to October 25th 3,706,248; in 1902 the total was 10,827,168 and the output to October 25th was 5,683,096.
Today's report covered 26,364 ginneries, and the statements upon which it was prepared were supplied by telegraph by 702 special agents in the field, most of them representing one county each.
